Dear Ravi Kulkarni, Team Leader, Marketing Division,

Good evening, Ravi. I have asked my team to send you all the required documents and data that you asked for. Can I know the status of the presentation and the shooting schedule for the ad? I want all the features of the chip to be displayed to the audience.

Also, have you decided on the actors for the ad? Once everything is planned, let us have a presentation and a meeting with the higher administration to decide on both the dates of the chip release and the ad release. Please make sure you ping me before reaching out to the CMO while discussing the marketing strategies. My team and I are readily available to help you with the technical stuff about the chip. Thank you.

Regards,
Raghuram Muddana
